Dear WorldatWork Local Network Leader:

By special invitation you are cordially invited to the 11th Annual WorldatWork Local Network Leadership Conference on May 31, 2009 at the Grand Hyatt Seattle, in Seattle Washington.

This year's conference theme, "Today. Tomorrow. Together," focuses on the continued growth and sustained success your organization and your members can attain in the coming years by partnering with WorldatWork. We know this year brings challenges as HR professionals and companies deal with a tough economy and its impact on the workplace and workforce. But by working together, we can drive new strategies and tactics to ensure continued growth and success, even in difficult times. Our conference this year will include great networking opportunities, dynamic activities and peer-to-peer discussions which will spark new ideas, alleviate fears and help you build a stronger organization and increased membership, even in times of adversity.

This year's interactive conference will focus on:

- Case Study and Best Practice Sharing
- Leadership and Board Development
- Networking with other Local Network Leaders
- Benefits and Services of the WorldatWork Local Network

Travel, Accommodations and Fees

Here are a few guidelines to keep in mind when planning your attendance:

- WorldatWork provides 2 nights lodging (May 30 and 31) at Grand Hyatt Seattle
- Food and beverage will be provided during group functions
- Flight reservations and expenses are the responsibility of the individual
- Registration fee is $100 per attendee
- There will be a Networking reception at 5:00 PM on Saturday, May 30, 2009
- The Leadership Conference will begin at 7:30 AM on Sunday, May 31, 2009
- Because this is an investment by your group and WorldatWork, identify the most appropriate individual for participation.
- Additional attendees are welcome, but are responsible for their own expenses.
- Personal guests are welcome to attend the reception on Saturday evening for an additional fee of $30 per guest.

Register by April 29, 2009

Attending the Conference is easy! You can now register online at www.worldatwork.org/localnetworkleaders. Or (click here to register).

Please note: you must complete both steps of the online registration process to ensure you receive your hotel reservation. Of course if you prefer, you can fax the enclosed forms to Jenny Starbuck at 480-483-8352 by April 29, 2009.
